YOGA BEHIND BARS

Yoga Behind Bars (YBB) is the only nonprofit in Washington State dedicated to offering trauma-informed yoga and meditation in prisons, jails, and detention centers. Our approach to compassionate rehabilitative programming is intended to shift the culture in prison from punishment to healing, harm to transformation, and recidivism to reintegration.

As a national leader in prison yoga service, YBB serves thousands of students per year in 17 state prisons, jails, and detention centers. Our volunteer faculty of 102 certified instructors, including inmate teachers, offer an average of 37 classes a week. We promote rehabilitation, help to build safer communities, and contribute to reform of the corrections system. Ultimately, we aspire to end the intergenerational cycle of suffering caused by incarceration.
